HI-Y Week—each March

Building Leaders

HI-Y Week showcases HI-Y to the school and community. Plan a week to include service, fundraising, membership recruitment, fun and serious thought. Let your school, community, family and friends know all HI-Y does and why HI-Y is such an important part of your time. Use your creativity and begin planning an awesome week.

Here are some Ideas for HI-Y Week

- Include a thought-for-the-day with announcements.
- Display posters and bulletin boards around school.
- Volunteer to do office errands, help with a sports event, etc.
- Show the slide show of Youth in Government, Model United Nations or Camp Horseshoe to classes or other student groups.
- Have your mayor proclaim HI-Y Week.
- Have a Clean Up Project.
- Attend church as a group.
- Hold a Local Youth in Government Day.
- Host a HI-Y Dinner - Invite alumni, school and city officials, parents.
- Civic clubs are interested in today's young people and are willing to have programs presented. They would appreciate the chance to become aware of what your HI-Y stands for and what you are doing.
